

Family Poems

“We Are Sisters”

We are sisters
Never break apart
You're not just my friend
But
You're my sister in my heart

We are sisters
We laugh and cry together
No matter how we look
Were always by each other
And like a knot, we are always tethered

We are sisters
We stand up for each other
Our love is like a chain
It always
Sticks together

We are sisters
forever and ever.

“Family”

Family is different for everyone.
Some families are strict, some are fun.
Some family members are crazy, and some are lazy.
Some are odd, and some are young.
A different perspective, some are protective.
Work hard, get smart, do my part.
My best memory with my family,
Involves holidays and vacations.
My memories are both happy and sad
I love my family.
This is who we are in our families.
We are athletic.
We play games.
We are the youngest, middle and the oldest,
at the same time.
This is my family and me,
This is not the end of our story.

“My Aunt”

My aunt is as pretty as a bobcat
Serious like a business-woman
Amazing like artwork, talented as
A magician, smart, like Albert Einstein.
Fantastic like an orchid flower
Sweet like pink lemonade, tall as
The Eiffel Tower.
