“I am From”

I am from my beautiful mother who take me to places.
I am from my mom. I love her big smile.
I am from a family where we all speak Spanish.

We are from the land of the crooked river
Inside each of us, there lives a giver.

I am from ice cream as cold as winter.
I am from the food my mom makes - fries, nuggets, and chicken pot pies

I am from art where getting messy is what makes me, me.

We are from the land of the crooked river
Inside each of us, there lives a giver.

I am from popcorn and horror movies!
I am from a family that loves to play “Sorry”
I am from sitting beneath a tree under the sun
I am from, “Bedtime! Goodnight, I love you!”

We are from the land of the crooked river
Inside each of us, there lives a giver.

“I am”

I am from my mom’s curly hair and my dad’s basketball fandom.
I am from a loud and fierce and wild family
I am from bland, bitter brussels sprouts
I am from strawberry ice cream every chance I get.

We are from Cleveland, city of bridges
At our fingers an untold potential of riches

I am from pepperoni pizza, pot stickers, vanilla cake, and calamari.
I am from a love of corn.
I am from a house of Warzone.
I am from a quiet neighborhood with squirrels running in yards.

We are from Cleveland, city of bridges
At our fingers an untold potential of riches

I am from dogs barking all night
I am from “We don’t got all day.”
I am from my brother being obnoxious, my mom cleaning,
my dad making jokes and fighting
I am from “The impossible is possible. All you have to do is make it so.”

We are from Cleveland city of bridges
We are from Cleveland, city of bridges
At our fingers
At our fingers
An untold potential of riches.

“I Believe In”

I believe in

Love

Friendship

Faith

And family

I believe in my dreams

And what I want to be

Believe, believe, believe

I want to be a soccer player

Doctor

Officer

Businessman

To be famous

Serve in the military

A nurse

I want to be kind to others

And make the right choices

I want. I want

I want to be

I dream of

My future

Being like my parents

Wealth and health

My beautiful Guatemala

Playing like Christinao Rinaldo

And going back to Nicaragua

I dream, I dream

I dream.

"The Remnant"

We are the remnant
We are loyal like a bee to a queen
Sticking by your side
That's our pride

Somos el remanente
Somos fuertes y valientes
Persistencia es nuestra fortaleza
Perseverar es lo que hacemos

We are the remnant
Outgoing and always confident
We stand firm, we are receiving
And no matter what we are always believing

Somos el remanente
Con el propósito de trabajar
La honestidad es nuestra responsabilidad
Y siempre ayudando con calidad

"The Remnant" (Continued)

Like a remnant, we are few
Let no one say, they never knew
We are shining stars the way we are Bringing light in your heart

Somos el remanente, los preferidos
Y nunca olviden que fuimos elegidos
Siempre serán todos bienvenidos
Porque somos el remanente, los escogidos

We are the remnant the chosen ones
Make no mistake, we are not done
Never forget we will always welcome others
Because we are the remnant, the chosen ones

“Who am I?”

Who am I?

That is a good question.

I am made of a dark skin complexion.

I am intelligent and wise.

I am beautiful and courageous.

I am thoughtful and filled with compassion.

I am supportive for all my friends.

I am stylish and authentic.

I am confident and full of ideals.

I am a leader without a disguise.

Who Am I?

I am a daughter, a niece, a granddaughter,
and a sister.

I am every girl who believes in herself.

Who am I?

I am Sariah.

“A New Generation of Leaders Let’s Begin with Me.”

Authentic, I am authentic
Like-able, just like my dad
Intelligent, I am intelligent
Versatile, because I am changing and growing
Innovative, I am a creative thinker
Ambitious, I have a strong desire to succeed
There you have it, a combination of an acrostic poem with Alivia and you have a new generation leader.

Thank you, my name is Alivia Davis.

“We Are”

We are,
Diamonds shining in the night.
Make us feel very bright,
Illuminating the sky,
Like shooting stars flying by.

We are,
Students striving for success,
So we can be our very best.
We persevere through the stress,
To this day we stay blessed.
We are shining.

“We are the Seltzer Stars”

We are the Seltzer Stars. Seltzer Stars Seltzer Stars.
We are the Seltzer Stars. Seltzer Stars Seltzer Stars.
We are the Seltzer Stars. Seltzer Stars Seltzer Stars.
We are the Seltzer Stars. Seltzer Stars Seltzer Stars.

We are strong, we are smart.

We are good at math and art.

We like to read, we like to learn
Gaining knowledge at every turn.

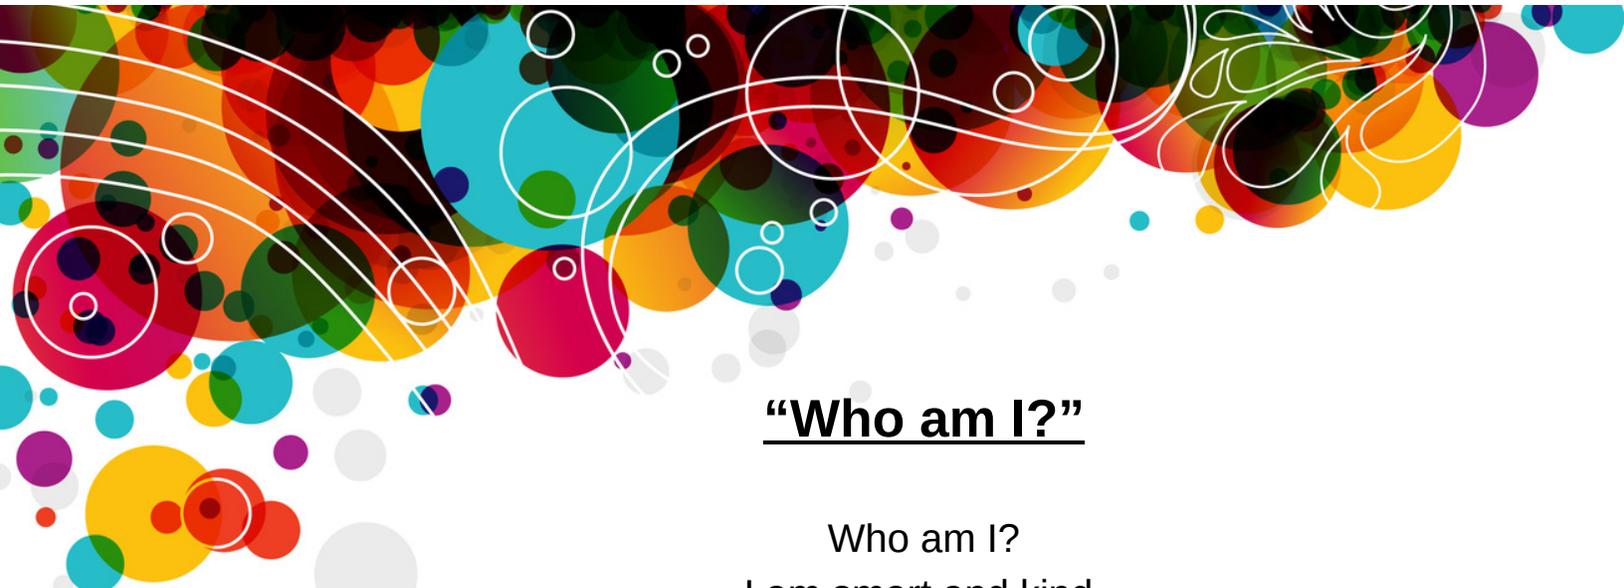

We are kind, we have heart
Building up, not tearing apart.

We help others when their down
And love the people in our town.

Respect and pride is always ours
Because we are the Seltzer stars.

We are the Seltzer Stars. Seltzer Stars Seltzer Stars.
We are the Seltzer Stars. Seltzer Stars Seltzer Stars.
We are the Seltzer Stars. Seltzer Stars Seltzer Stars.
We are the Seltzer Stars. Seltzer Stars Seltzer Stars.

We believe in our greatness!

“Who am I?”

Who am I?

I am smart and kind.

I am a butterfly as blue as the sky.

I am a bird as light as the sun.

I am a girl that likes making friends.

I am bold as the raging seas.

Who do I want to be?

I want to help people.

I want to study life.

I want to be a shoulder to cry on.

I want to be a good friend.

I want to teach life lessons.

If I could save the world...

I would get rid of pollution.

I would sacrifice my life for others.

I would stop racism.

I would stop gun violence.

I would find a cure for all diseases.

I would let everyone know that all people deserve kindness and respect.

This is who I am!

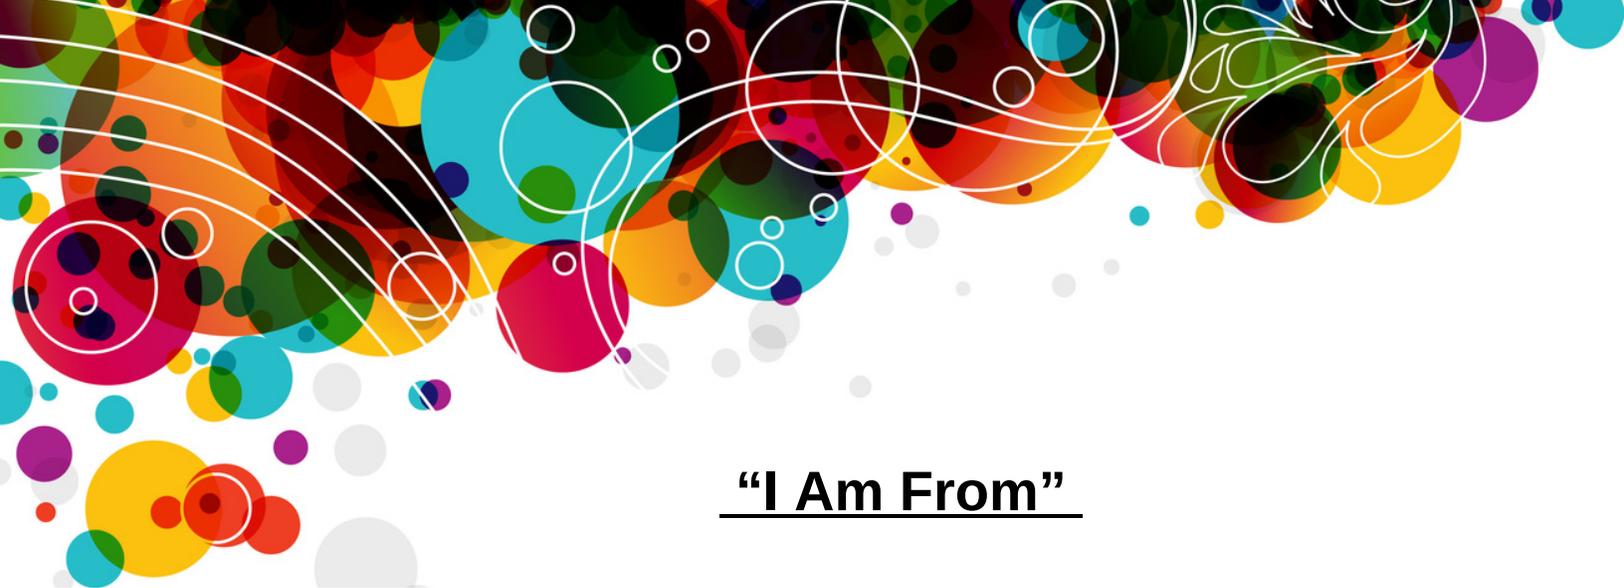

This is who I want to be!

"I Am"

I am too unique
I am too smart for myself
And although it's good
It's too hard to be understood

I am too unique
Tick, tip, tap I go
When focused
But shiver, shiver, shiver
When I feel cold snow

I am too unique
Even if everyone does this
And I know this because I am truly me.
