

Color Poem

“Untitled”

Butterflies fly and they are all types of colors
The ocean waves and it is darkest blue
You will see polar bears are cold and as white as snow
Flamingos are born grey but they are as pink as a heart
Red Fox will sneak on little critters
But they are as red as a red mask
Tiger are fast but they are as orange as orange sneakers Yellow garden spider bite but there are as yellow as butter
Crocodiles have big teeth and they are green!
