“We Support You”

We're from MCS
We always do our best
Everything we do leads to success
Doesn't matter if you're dark or light
We will treat you right
We're all equal in our eyes
We believe all are sweet as pumpkin pies

We're from MCS
We always do our best
Everything we do leads to success

We help you believe in you
And all that you can do
We will protect you from harm
And raise the success alarm

We're from MCS
We always do our best
Everything we do leads to success
As we end this poem we ask you to be kind
This invite, please don't decline
Remember we love you just the way you are Follow your dreams to that bright star

We're from MCS
We always do our best
We wish you nothing but success!

“If We were in Charge of the World”

If we were in charge of the world,
We would have more trees and flowers,
Red, pink, purple and orange.
We would have less homework and two recesses -
Four hours and ten minutes of outside play!
If we were in charge of the world,
Factories would have less smoke,
And no people would be fighting,
And there'd be free candy for everyone!
We would give money to the poor to give them a better life,
And it would rain money from the sky!
If we were in charge of the world,
Our sillias would be comodas
(and they would fly!)
La calle would be limpia.
And for lunch we would eat healthier food,
Like broccoli, zanahorias and ice cream!
When we are in charge of the world,
We will play soccer and video games all day.
We will drive flying Lamborghinis,
And our schools would have everything they need!
There will be no more cancer, COVID, or diabetes
And no more guns,
And no mas drogas!
And NO WAR!
When we are in charge,
We will have peace,
Love,
And respect for everyone!

“Best Friends”

You see me,
I see you,
Floating in the sky,
Like we always do.

We are bff's forever, never do we fight.
We will always have each other's backs.

You will always have my back like I have yours.
Floating in the sky, me and you are shining like a star.
We started in school and became bff's because we rule.
Bff's forever!!!

“Sensory Poem”

I hear a pencil sharpener

I smell pencil dust

I see the board

I feel paper

I taste nothing

I am a classroom!

Elephants eat enormous eggs
Fish needs famous fish food
Goats gobble green gum
Horse has hard hands
Insects is iron ink
Jack and Jill drank jelly juice
Kite klid kid
Late lights leave on low
Monkey pox makeup Malley
Nurse needs a neat nest
Octopus opens oranges
Purple peachers are plump
Quill queens quickly get quiet
Ridley, Reign and Raven wear rainbows
Sunday smells stinky
Turtle turn ten tomorrow
Under the umbrella with us
Very violent vans move viciously
When we go to Walmart
Xzavious xylophone needs to be x-rayed
Yo! Yoyo yarns turned yellow

“My Dear Future Self”

I once told my mom
I will talk to my future self

I told my mom,
Dad everyday
I couldn't help it
I had a dream
Doing it so I did this!

I wrote a letter to my future self
It took me hours until I got it right

I went to the mailman
And said please deliver this
To my future self.
He said, “Okay”
I waited for the mailman
To come to my house he finally came
Then he said she got the letter

I jumped with excitement, I ran inside
Hugged my mom, dad. I hollered
She got the letter!
Mom, dad cheered with excitement.
And said, “Yay!”
